Hastings is to have a telephone system.

Hillsboro's county treasurer is required to give a bond of $84,000.

The Clyde southbound ships are now coming with long passenger lists.

The hotel and transportation men predict an early and long season—but they always do that.

Daytona is infested with roaming cattle again. DeLand is never, no never, troubled in this way; that is, not all the time.

Jacksonville merchants to the number of 305 have been arraigned in the Criminal Court on the charge of doing business without a license.

The ladies of Jacksonville who dressed up as nurses and solicited alms for St. Luke's hospital one day during the carnival succeeded in collecting over $700 for this charitable purpose. The people of all Florida have a warm place in their hearts for St. Luke's and willingly contributed toward the good work.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

Governor Jennings, in the following words, sets apart Thursday, November 26, as a day for general thanksgiving:

STATE OF FLORIDA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.)

It is meet that we should, as a God-loving, God-fearing people, recognize at all times our dependence upon Him for the many precious gifts He has vouchsafed to us, and bow before Him with humble, thankful hearts for the blessings He has abundantly bestowed upon us.

Time, in its steadfast round, has again brought to us the bountiful harvest season with its traditions and sweet memories. It is a beautiful and blessed custom that sets aside one day in each year as a day of special thanksgiving and prayer to Almighty God for His manifold blessings. His watchful care, guidance and protection. To the people of our state this has been a year of marvelous prosperity, of progress, contentment and development, a year crowded with blessings.

Now, therefore, in conformity with the sacred customs of the founders of our country and in accordance with the proclamation of the President of the United States of America, I, William S. Jennings, Governor of the state of Florida, do hereby designate Thursday, the 26th day of November, A. D. 1903, as a day of rest from our usual occupation to be observed by thanksgiving, praise and prayer to the Supreme Father and creator of the universe, and the blessings we have received, and by supplication for a continuance of that guardianship that has kept us in the past. On that day at each church, each home, each heart be an altar of praise to Him who has bestowed his choicest blessings upon us.

To be a truly great, a truly good people we must be a truly religious people. May the public conscience be quickened to a profound recognition of the power and goodness of God.

May we advance in piety, morality and intelligence. May His protecting hand guide and keep alive within us, faith in Him, love for our free institutions and patriotic devotion to duty. May the choicest blessings of a merciful Father be showered upon the whole people, and may His hand lead and keep in the path of righteousness.

GLENWOOD

Special Correspondence.

Glenwood, November 18.—Lovely weather, but some of our citizens are too sick to enjoy it, but all hope they may soon recover.

Two of Mr. Mattis' children are very sick. Dr. Munson was called.

Mr. Wright is confined to the house and Dr. Munson is treating him.

Miss Grace Keown, who has been attending Stetson University, has had fever, so she has missed several days schooling, which is a great disappointment to her.

Mr. Booth and Mrs. VanCleaf are entertaining a sister, Mrs. Ives, of Denver, Col. They had not met for years before.

Rev. West is attending Presbytery at Candler this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ware are expected home this week, after an extended visit north.

Howard Bredow went to Daytona to work in the post office ten days ago, but came home sick today.

It would be well for the orange thieves to know they are being watched, and may have to pay dear yet for their stolen fruit. Folks are not raising fruit to feed thieves, when some hot lead may stop some of them unexpectedly.

They have been shipping oranges from the Norris groves.

J. B. Conrad returned home Monday from a trip on the east coast.

The school is getting along nicely, although some of the scholars have to miss on account of sickness.

Mrs. Geddis of Toledo, Ohio, is expected this week and has engaged rooms in Judge Henry's house for the winter.

Drummers must be plentiful in Florida, judging by the number that pass through here.

Mr. Pomeroy is having his oranges picked this week.

Mr. Mann had friends visiting them from Ohio and Indiana, but all left to visit other places south.

Mr. Furnal and family expect to leave in a short time, so there will be a vacant house for some one to rent.

BEAUTIFUL CLEAR SKIES.

Herbicide exerts a direct influence on the bowels, liver and kidneys, purifying and strengthening these organs, and maintaining them in a normal condition of health; thus removing a common cause of yellow, mothy, greasy skin, and more or less of pimples, blotches and blackheads. 50c at all druggists.

Ahead vs. Behind.

In every newspaper we pick up we're sure to find a lot of gush about the man behind the counter and the man behind the gun, the man behind the buzz saw and the man behind the son, the man behind the times and the man behind his rents, the man behind the plowshare and the man behind the fence, the man behind the kodak and the man behind the cars, the man behind his whisks and the man behind his fists, and everything behind has entered on the lists.

They skipped another fellow of whom nothing has been said, the fellow who is ever on a little way ahead, who always pays for what he gets, whose bills are always signed, he's a blained sight more important than the man who is behind. All we editors and merchants and the whole commercial clan are indebted for existence to the honest fellow man. He keeps us all in business, and his town is never dead, and so we take our hats off to the man that is ahead.—Manteno (Ill.) Independent.

A DANGEROUS MONTH.

This is the month of coughs, colds and acute catarrh. Do you catch cold easily? Find yourself hoarse, with a tickling in your throat and an annoying cough at night? Then, you should at once have handy, a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. J. A. Anderson, 354 West 5th St., Salt Lake City, writes:

"We use Ballard's Horehound Syrup for coughs and colds. It gives immediate relief. We know it's the best remedy for these troubles. I write this to induce other people to try this pleasant and efficient remedy." 25c, 50c and $1.00 at all druggists.

To Pave Streets With Milk.

A land flowing with milk is an ancient idea, but streets paved with it is a notion essentially modern. It is being seriously proposed to the municipality of Paris by a contractor of standing. He claims for a pavement of indurated milk the advantages of durability and noiselessness. Perhaps also in times of distress and turbulence it might provide a resource attractive enough to divert the populace from barricades and bombardment of the public forces. It is sober truth that at the approaching doll makers' exhibition there will be a great variety of objects made from indurated milk. These include domjnos, dice, cigar holders, canes, umbrella handles, forks and spoons.

BEST LINIMENT ON EARTH.

M. McHany, Greenville, Tex., Nov. 24, 1900: "I had rheumatism in winter, was down in bed six weeks, and everything, but got no more friend gave me a part of a box of Ward's Snow Liniment. I used it and I haven't felt any rheumatism or pains, rub in Ballard's Snow you will not suffer long, but satisfied with a speedy and efficient remedy." 25c, 50c and $1.00 at all druggists.

That prince of merchants—John Wanamaker—says:

"Noah was the first man to advertise. He advertised the flood and it came all right! The fellows who laughed at the advertising done by Noah got drowned, and it served them right. Ever since Noah's time the hustling advertiser has been prospering, while the other fellow is being swallowed up in the flood of disaster, and goes around with a long face." Orange City

Orange City, November 18.—Mrs. Abbey Gunn, Miss Fanny Frobridge and Miss Nettleton of Washington, Conn., arrived Saturday evening. They are boarding with Mrs. John White.

Mrs. Belle Dunlap and Mrs. Mollie Palmer got into their cottage Saturday evening. They are now keeping house.

Mrs. St. John and daughter, Helen, spent Sunday in Enterprise.

Miss Nellie Martin left Monday for Cassadaga, where she expects to pass the winter with Mrs. Webster.

Mr. Fred Finney is papering and painting his cottage and doing other work on the inside.

Mr. Ed Spencer's son, Lee, returned home Thursday from New Haven, Conn., where he has been bookkeeper for the past five years for a firm there. We are all glad to welcome Lee home.

Major Brenna is improving his cottage on the inside with paint and hard oil.

Mr. Lukins' carload of household goods came Thursday. He and his daughter are getting settled now in their cottage they have rented for a year of Miss M. Dickinson.

Mr. Fenn's kitchen was raided Monday night by sneak thieves. They tore out the screen from the window and entered that way. As the safe containing the food was not in the kitchen they went as empty as they came. Mr. Fenn says they need not have gone to that trouble, for if they had come to the door and told him they were hungry, he would have given them a lunch.

Mrs. R. S. Leavitt is quite ill this week.

Mrs. Wm Scott received a telegram Tuesday morning saying her son, Walter, had been dangerously shot at Palm Beach, where he has been working for the past three months. She and her son, William, were ready to start on the noon train, when they received another telegram saying "remain home."

Mr. and Mrs. John Allen of Indiana came Tuesday evening. They own a very pretty cottage on Stillman ave.

Those hungry boys had better luck at Miss Dickinson's than they did at Mr. Fenn's. They took about two dollars worth of provisions out of her safe Monday night.

Mr. Wm. Laws went to New Smyrna Wednesday on business.

NEW SMYRNA.

Items from the Breeze.

The cottage being built by J. H. Vrooman on the peninsula for Wm. Laws is nearing completion. It contains six rooms and is quite a creditable building.

Capt. W. R. Roberts of Daytona is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Lourcy. He will help Mr. Lourcy build some boats while here.

Henry J. Wilmhurst of DeLand was the guest of L. E. Wilson, at the Ocean House, a few days this week.

Mrs. T. C. Vandegrift showed us quite a curiosity the other day in the shape of a heart. It was a species of fish called "live heart." There were two specimens. They were heart-shaped and are about the color of an animal's heart. Mrs. Vandegrift has them preserved in alcohol.

One of the boldest sneak thieves we have heard of in a long time visited Smyrna last Friday. About 10 o'clock of that morning Miss Miller, who resides with J. R. Berry's family, went into her room, and while there missed her watch from its customary place.

An investigation revealed the fact that her pocketbook was also missing. The fact was at once reported to Harry E. Sams, deputy sheriff, and he and Mr. Berry began a search for the guilty party. A negro about eighteen years old was seen around the place, and with this clue they started out.

The negro described was found at the depot, was arrested on suspicion and a search disclosed the fact that they had the culprit as he had the pocketbook on his person. He confessed that he had stolen it, but denied any knowledge of the watch, but the sight of a rope and a good buggy whip was too much for him and he soon produced the watch; he had it concealed in the top part of his sock. He was tried before Justice Turner and bound over to court, and Sheriff Turner took him to DeLand Friday afternoon.

DAYTONA.

Items from the Gazette-News.

The Bond Lumber Co. have succeeded the Bond & Bond Co. at Daytona. J. B. Conrad and Frank E. Bond are in the city taking an inventory of the stock in the yard.

The front of the building occupied by Henry T. Titus has been repainted this week. Mr. Titus will put in a sort of Delmonico place this season and furnish high class high priced lunches. He has engaged a competent chef.

The hens are evidently again on a strike and eggs are scarce articles in Daytona. The merchants inform us that it is utterly impossible for them to anywhere near supply the demand.

Dr. H. K. DuBois, of Port Orange, was in the city Thursday. The doctor will go to Jacksonville today to meet Mrs. DuBois who is returning from a summer's visit in France, England and Scotland. She arrived in New York last Sunday. On the same ship Mrs. Chas. Fozzard of Port Orange was also a passenger. Mrs. Fozzard has spent the past six months visiting in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Mason started Tuesday for Columbia, Isle of Pines, where they will spend the winter. Mr. Mason is largely interested in land deals in Cuba and the Isle of Pines and feels that his presence is required to look after his extensive interests. A number of their friends were at the depot to bid them good-bye and wish them a safe and pleasant trip.

J. S. Matson of Bichwood, Ky., arrived yesterday with his family, and is occupying the Green house, on South Ridgewood. Mr. Matson is a prominent stock raiser of the blue grass state, and a regular winter visitor to Daytona.

Dr. D. D. Beekman and his guests on the "Crystal Wave," returned Tuesday from a hunting expedition down to the Lagoon. The party consisted of Dr. Beekman, R. S. Maley, S. H. Gove, E. T. Conrad and J. D. Maley. They bagged about fifty ducks on the trip.

The Merchants Bank has received a new burglar proof door for the entrance to their safety deposit boxes. The door weighs 1,750 pounds.

Wedded Fifty Years.

Tuesday was the fiftieth anniversary of the wedding of Rev. and Mrs. James Stanton of Ormond. That evening about 100 of their friends marched in upon them to celebrate the occasion. Prayer was offered by Rev. E. W. Butler, pastor of the Congregational church, after which he read a beautiful poem adapted to the occasion, pledged anew the marriage vows, and supplemented the whole by presenting in behalf of the friends a purse of $50 in shining gold as a token of respect for the aged couple. Mr. Stanton replied with much feeling in a few appropriate remarks, after which the evening spent in social chat and partaking of light refreshments; the company retired at an early hour, all happy in making others happy.—Daytona Gazette-News.

At the Sociable.
Mr. Sliptongue—I have not met your wife. Is she here this evening?
Mr. Hansome—Yes, but just at this moment she is engaged over there at the piano.
Mr. Sliptongue (with affected enthusiasm)—Ah, I see! She is that goddess-like beauty who is playing an accompaniment for the mountain of flesh who is singing.
Mr. Hansome (stiffly)—My wife does not play; she sings.—London Telegraph.

Why?
"Lillian is not sure that she loves Walter. Sometimes she thinks she does, and at other times she's convinced she doesn't."
"And yet she is going to marry him?"
"Oh, yes, that's all settled."
"But if she is not sure she loves him why doesn't she break the engagement?"
"Because she is twenty-seven."—Kansas City Journal.

Fixing the Blame.
"The trouble ain't with the farm," said the old man. "If the farm didn't have to do anything but support itself, it could be made to pay, but it don't seem to be able to carry the burden of us livin' on it, so I reckon we're to blame."—Chicago Post.
